CITIZEN TED: WHY TED CRUZ LIED ABOUT HIS MOTHER

EXCLUSIVE

THE LIES:

[From: “A Time for Truth: Reigniting the Promise of America” – June 30, 2015 by Ted Cruz]

Ted Cruz said his mother Eleanor’s first son Michael Wilson was born (and later died) in 1965 while she was married to her first husband Alan Wilson.

Ted Cruz said: “After meeting each other at Geocom in New Orleans, my parents had moved to Canada...”

THE TRUTH:

Michael Wilson was not the son of Alan Wilson—he and Eleanor divorced in 1963—and the baby was born out of wedlock in 1966.

Eleanor moved from England to Canada in December, 1967

THE REASON FOR THE LIES:

“A child born abroad to a U.S. citizen parent or parents MAY acquire U.S. citizenship at birth IF certain statutory requirements are met.” (U.S. State Department).

So where is your CRBA, Ted?

“Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence (I conjure you to believe me, fellow-citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake, since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican government...”

–President Washington warning the nation about foreign attachment and influence in his Farewell Address of 1796.

NATURAL BORN CITIZENS?

“Consider that the constitutionally ineligible Senator Marco Rubio, Governor Bobby Jindal, and Governor Nikki Haley, while born in the United States, were born to no U.S. citizen parents. Furthermore, being born in a foreign country, under jus soli

Ted Cruz was born out of wedlock in 1970

AND

Birth Abroad Out-of-Wedlock to a U.S. Citizen Mother:

A person born abroad out-of-wedlock to a U.S. citizen mother may acquire U.S. citizenship under Section 309(c) of the INA if the mother was a U.S. citizen at the time of the person's birth and if the mother was physically present in the United States or one of its outlying possessions for a continuous period of one year prior to the person's birth. The U.S. citizen mother must be the genetic or the gestational mother and the legal parent of the child under local law at the time and place of the child's birth to transmit U.S. citizenship.

CRUZ FAMILY TIMELINE

Nov 23, 1934	TED CRUZ's MOTHER BORN in Delaware, U.S. (Eleanor Darragh)
1956	Graduated from Rice University, Texas
1956	Married Alan Wilson
1960	Moved to London with husband Alan Wilson
1963	Divorced from Alan Wilson
1966	Birth/death of Michael Wilson (not related to former husband Alan Wilson)

A McClatchy newspaper review by Maria Recio of the 2015 book "A Time for Truth: Reigniting the Miracle of America" states "Cruz reveals that his mother, Eleanor, had a child, a son named Michael, during her first marriage, who died when he was a baby." Another McClatchy article states: "Although Cruz in his book cites 1965 for Michael Wilson's birth and death. London records obtained by McClatchy show that a Michael Wilson was born and died in 1966 and was buried in Kensal Green Cemetery in Kensington, a London neighborhood."

what source do you have (cite) for eleanor darragh wilson moving to canada in 1967? while you state in your timeline that eleanor met rafael at rafael's new oil company in canada, all previously published sources indicate that rafael and eleanor met in new orleans where they both worked at a company called geocom.

they left geocom and together moved to canada where they both started the company rafael b cruz and associates.

evidence would suggest that eleanor was probably living in new orleans in late 1967. look at the death document for michael wilson which documents that a copy of the consular death report was mailed to eleanor darragh wilson in october 1967 to a new orleans address.

you also need to add the marriage and divorce of rafael b cruz to julia anne garza. they married in texas and divorced in louisiana. i think that is important to your timeline.

in your timeline you cite:

if the mother was physically present in the United States or one of its outlying possessions for a continuous period of one year prior to the person's as part of the born out of wedlock argument.

since that doesn't state that the one year has to be the one year immediately preceeding a child's birth abroad, i'm not sure this section helps the argument since eleanor was born in delaware and was in the states from 1934 until moving to london in 1960.

Some interesting tidbits here.

The bottom line remains that even if Cruz was properly registered, under American laws passed for businessmen and soldiers, by his mother as an American born abroad, it will take a Supreme Court decision as to whether that qualifies as the Constitution's "natural born."

Truly, nothing else will do, and the Cruz case is not the same as Obama's in a number of ways.

Dave Pickhardt - On January 8, 2016 Breitbart quoted Jason Johnson, chief strategist for the Cruz campaign: "Eleanor was never a citizen of Canada, and she could not have been under the facts or the law. In short, she did not live in Canada long enough to be a Canadian citizen by the time Cruz was born in 1970: Canadian law required 5 years of permanent residence, and she moved to Canada in December 1967—only 3 years before Senator Cruz's birth."

Wikipedia says that Ted's father and mother met in 1969 (see link in timeline). Information about Cruz and his family varies from source to source which is a problem, but nothing explains the errors in Ted Cruz's own book!

A copy of Michael Wilson's death document dated 10/2/1967 was mailed c/o a "Caroline Jackson" in Meterie, LA and the statement at the bottom of that document states that Eleanor was "residing abroad with relatives" in London.

perspective is sometimes a strange thing. i am looking at the report of death of michael wilson as having been prepared by the consular office in london. when it talks about "residing abroad with relatives" there is something "x'd" out just preceding that. i took the word "london" right under courtfield gardens to be associated with alan wilson's address.

if this document was prepared in london, then a reference to someone living abroad with relatives would not mean to me they were living in london.

i believe that both rafael and eleanor went to canada together after meeting in new orleans. canada has a provision for expedited citizenship if an immigrant starts a business in canada and employees at least one canadian citizen who is not one of the partners in the business. i believe that both rafael and eleanor started r b cruz and associates together which could have led expedited citizenship. normally one has to have been a permanent resident for 4 out of the six years prior to obtaining citizenship.

you are correct that nothing about the cruz timeline in ted's book makes any sense. we know that rafael b was still in new orleans as late as July 26, 1967 because that is when he registered with the selective service at the federal building in New Orleans.

the timeline regarding when Rafael deserted his family in Canada and found Jesus hiding in Texas, of all places, I have seen reported as around 1973-1974. From the Canadian archives, a voter registration list for the 1974 general election shows both Eleanor and Rafael as voters. I don't know when that list was compiled, but that might provide some timeline information regarding Rafael's coming and going around that time.

This is like bowling in the dark. You hear a lot of noise but never can figure out the results.

What is the Dept of State website to which you refer about documenting the timeline?

I believe Wiki is incorrect about when Eleanor and Rafael met. Agree they were in Canada in 1969 but they met a couple of years earlier in New Orleans.

Any idea who Caroline Jackson is? I believe Eleanor had family in New Orleans which is why she went there from London.

American Minute for April 14th:

Download MP3

View in Spanish

Noah Webster first published his American Dictionary of the English Language on APRIL 14, 1828.

In order to evaluate the etymology of words, he learned 26 languages, including Old English, German, Greek, Latin, Italian, Spanish, French, Hebrew, Arabic, and Sanskrit.

Taking over two decades to complete, Webster's Dictionary provided over 30,000 new definitions, standardized spelling and gave American English its identity.

Noah Webster wrote in the Preface of his 1828 Dictionary:

"To that great and benevolent Being ... who has borne me and my manuscripts in safety across the Atlantic, and given me strength and resolution to bring the work to a close, I would present the tribute of my most grateful acknowledgments."

After Webster's death the rights to the Dictionary were purchased by George and Charles Merriam.

Using the King James Version, Webster's 1828 American Dictionary contained the greatest number of Biblical definitions given in any reference volume.

Noah Webster wrote:

"The Bible should be the standard of language as well as of faith."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defined "FAITH" as:

"That firm belief of God's testimony, and of the truth of the Gospel, which influences the will, and leads to an entire reliance on Christ for salvation.

'Being justified by faith' Rom.v.;

'Without faith it is impossible to please God' Heb.xi.;

'For we walk by faith, not by sight' 2Cor.v.;

'With the heart man believeth to righteousness' Rom.x.;

'Your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world' Rom.i.;

'Hast thou faith? Have it to thyself before God' Rom.xiv.;

'Children in whom is no faith' Deut.xxxii."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defined "RELIGION" as:

"A belief in the being and perfections of God, in the revelation of His will to man, in man's obligation to obey His commands, in a state of reward and punishment, and in man's accountableness to God ...

The practice of moral duties without a belief in a divine lawgiver, and without reference to his will or commands, is not religion."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defined
"PROVIDENCE" as:

"The care and superintendence which God exercises over his creatures ...
Some persons admit a general providence, but deny a particular providence, not considering that a general providence consists of particulars.

A belief in divine providence is a source of great consolation to good men. By divine providence is understood God himself."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defined
"MARRIAGE" as:

"Uniting a man and woman for life ...
A contract both civil and religious ...
till death shall separate them.
Marriage was instituted by God himself for the purpose of preventing the promiscuous intercourse of the sexes, for promoting domestic felicity, and for securing the maintenance and education of children.

Marriage is honorable in all and the bed undefiled. Hebrews 13:4 ...

2. In a scriptural sense, the union between Christ and his church by the covenant of grace. Revelation 19:7."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defined
"LAW OF NATURE" as:

"Rule or conduct arising out of the natural relations of human beings established by the Creator, and existing prior to any positive precept.

Thus it is a Law of Nature, that one man should not injure another, and murder and fraud would be crimes, independent of any prohibition from a supreme power ...

A rule of direction ... as reason and natural conscience.
'These, having not the law, are a law
to themselves.' Rom.ii."

Webster's definition of "NATURE" included:

"In a general sense, whatever is made or produced; a word that comprehends all the works of God."

Webster's definition of "SODOMY"
was: "A crime against nature."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defined
"PROPERTY" as:

"The exclusive right of possessing,
enjoying and disposing of a thing;
ownership. In the beginning of the world, the Creator gave to man dominion over the earth ...

It is one of the greatest blessings of civil society that the property of citizens is well secured."

Regarding "PROPERTY," Noah Webster wrote in the preface of his Dictionary, republished 1841:

"Let the people have property and they will have power - a power that will forever be exerted to prevent a restriction of the press, and abolition of trial by jury, or the abridgement of any other privilege."

Noah Webster wrote:

"The liberty of the press, trial by jury, the Habeas Corpus writ, even Magna Carta itself, although justly deemed the palladia of freedom, are all inferior considerations, when compared with a general distribution of real property among every class of people.

The power of entailing estates is more dangerous to liberty and republican government than all the constitutions that can be written on paper, or even than a standing army ...

The production of genius and the imagination are if possible more really and exclusively property than houses and lands, and are equally entitled to legal security."

Noah Webster had served as a soldier in the Revolutionary War.

In 1781, Webster received his Master's Degree from Yale, with his dissertation:

"On the universal diffuse of literature as introductory to the universal diffusion of Christianity."

In 1783, Webster published his Blue-Backed Speller, which eventually sold over 100 million copies.

He was elected to the Connecticut General Assembly for 9 terms, then the Massachusetts Legislature for 3 more.

Noah Webster wrote to Thomas Dawes, December 20, 1808:

"About a year ago, an unusual revival of religion took place in New Haven ... and I was led by a spontaneous impulse of repentance, prayer, and entire submission and surrender of myself to my Maker and Redeemer ... In the month of April last I made a profession of faith."

In 1812, Webster helped found Amherst College.

In 1830, Noah Webster dined with President Andrew Jackson and addressed the U.S. House of Representatives, which subsequently passed legislation guaranteeing copyright protection.

In 1833, Noah Webster published his American edition of the Bible.

During the French Revolution in which 40,000 lost their heads in Paris and 300,000 were killed in the Vendée, Noah Webster penned the article "Political Fanaticism, No. III," published in The American Minerva, Sept. 21, 1796:

"The reason why severe laws are necessary in France, is, that the people have not been educated republicans - they do not know how to govern themselves (and so) must be governed by severe laws and penalties, and a most rigid administration."

Noah Webster wrote to James Madison, October 16, 1829:

"The Christian religion, in its purity, is the basis or rather the source of all genuine freedom in government ...

I am persuaded that no civil government of a republican form can exist and be durable, in which the principles of that religion have not a controlling influence."

In 1832, in his History of the United States, Noah Webster wrote:

"The brief exposition of the constitution of the United States, will unfold to young persons the principles of republican government;

and it is the sincere desire of the writer that our citizens should early understand that the genuine source of correct republican principles is the Bible, particularly the New Testament or the Christian religion."

Noah Webster added:

"Almost all the civil liberty now enjoyed in the world owes its origin to the principles of the Christian religion ...

The religion which has introduced civil liberty is the religion of Christ and His apostles, which enjoins humility, piety, and benevolence;
which acknowledges in every person
a brother, or a sister, and a citizen with equal rights.

This is genuine Christianity, and to this we owe our free Constitutions of Government."

Noah Webster stated:

"The moral principles and precepts contained in the Scriptures ought to form the basis of all of our civil constitutions and laws."

In the preface of Webster's 1828
Dictionary, Noah Webster wrote:

"In my view, the Christian religion is the most important and one of the first things in which all children, under a free government ought to be instructed ...

No truth is more evident to my mind than that the Christian religion must be the basis of any government intended to secure the rights and privileges of a free people."
